EMVITA 11 (50ML)

Emvita 11 (Hunger for Good Feelings) Emotional issues addressed: You feel an inner dissatisfaction, deeply discontent, or frustration. You crave good feelings. You want to be cared for, to feel that somebody loves you. You have feelings of unrest and restlessness, as you are always searching for something to fill the emotional hunger. You may feel cheated out of a sense of well-being and need to protect your boundaries and the nice things that bring you joy.

This conflict can be due to an unstable emotional environment or starved for affection from others, loss of relationships, too much or too little responsibility or your will was taken away. Often one tries to fill the void (hunger) with good feelings through emotional eating, workaholism, addictions (tobacco, alcohol, drugs, food, sex), etc. There may be a tendency for dependency, addictions and eating disorders (anorexia and / or bulimia).

Guidance: Recognize your own needs and nurture yourself emotionally. Realize that true happiness can only come from within, not from what others give you. To find the love you seek, you must first find the love within yourself.

Positive Affirmation: I love and nourish myself and open my heart to allow all my needs to be met.
