

PREGNANCY TEA

Pregnancy tea is made from raspberry leaves, squaw vine and nettles. It is a classic "partus preparteur", helping to tonify the smooth muscle of the uterus to prepare for labour while supplying trace minerals. Sold as a loose tea.

Recommended dose: Drink 1 cup twice per day. The tea may be sweetened but do not use cream or milk.